EPIPHANY CONFESsION AND FORGIVENESS

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

Blessed be the Holy Trinity, One God, the source of all life, who comes to us as a beacon to guide our lives. Amen.

Together with one voice, let us confess our sin in the presence of God and one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

O God in whom we hope,

Have mercy on us. We have turned from your ways and wandered into the wilderness spaces of life. We have not loved you or our neighbor with an open heart, just as you called us to live. We hurt with our words and actions. We ignore the needs around us. We lack the call to be good stewards in the gifts you have given to us. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, and by the power of your Spirit, bring us back to life. Amen.

Beloved of God, hear these words of assurance. God does not give up on you. God’s steadfast love endures forever. In the name of Jesus Christ (+), your sins are forgiven. Remember: you are children of God, forgiven and set free. Amen.

THE READINGS

The First Reading: Isaiah 58:1-9a

<sup>1</sup> Shout out; do not hold back!

    Lift up your voice like a trumpet!

Announce to my people their rebellion,
    to the house of Jacob their sins.

<sup>2</sup> Yet day after day they seek me

    and delight to know my ways,
as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness
    and did not forsake the ordinance of their God;
they ask of me righteous judgments;
    they want God on their side.

<sup>3</sup> “Why do we fast, but you do not see?

    Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?”
Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day
    and oppress all your workers.

<sup>4</sup> You fast only to quarrel and to fight
    and to strike with a wicked fist.

Such fasting as you do today
    will not make your voice heard on high.

<sup>5</sup> Is such the fast that I choose,
    a day to humble oneself?

Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush
    and to lie in sackcloth and ashes?

Will you call this a fast,
    a day acceptable to the LORD?

<sup>6</sup> Is not this the fast that I choose:
    to loose the bonds of injustice,
    to undo the straps of the yoke,
to let the oppressed go free,
    and to break every yoke?

<sup>7</sup> Is it not to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house;
when you see the naked, to cover them
    and not to hide yourself from your own kin?

<sup>8</sup> Then your light shall break forth like the dawn,
    and your healing shall spring up quickly;
your vindicator shall go before you;

the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.

<sup>9a</sup> Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer;
you shall cry for help, and he will say, “Here I am.”

<sup>9b</sup> If you remove the yoke from among you,
the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil,

<sup>10</sup> if you offer your food to the hungry
and satisfy the needs of the afflicted,
then your light shall rise in the darkness
and your gloom be like the noonday.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD will guide you continually and satisfy your needs in parched places
and make your bones strong,
and you shall be like a watered garden,
like a spring of water
whose waters never fail.

<sup>12</sup> Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt;
you shall raise up the foundations of many generations;
you shall be called the repairer of the breach,
the restorer of streets to live in.

L The Word of the Lord C Thanks be to God!

The Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:1-12 (13-16)

<sup>1</sup> When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the testimony of God to you with superior speech or wisdom. <sup>2</sup> For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. <sup>3</sup> And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. <sup>4</sup> My speech and my proclamation were made not with persuasive words of wisdom but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, <sup>5</sup> so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

<sup>6</sup> Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are being destroyed. <sup>7</sup> But we speak God’s wisdom, a hidden mystery, which God decreed before the ages for our glory <sup>8</sup> and which none of the rulers of this age understood, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. <sup>9</sup> But, as it is written,

“What no eye has seen, nor ear heard,
nor the human heart conceived,
what God has prepared for those who love him”—

<sup>10</sup> God has revealed to us through the Spirit, for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God.<sup>11</sup> For what human knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also, no one comprehends what is truly God's except the Spirit of God.<sup>12</sup> Now we have received not the spirit of the world but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God. [<sup>13</sup> And we speak of these things in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual things to those who are spiritual.

<sup>14</sup> Those who are unspiritual do not receive the gifts of God's Spirit, for they are foolishness to them, and they are unable to understand them because they are spiritually discerned.<sup>15</sup> Those who are spiritual discern all things, and they are themselves subject to no one else's scrutiny.

<sup>16</sup> "For who has known the mind of the Lord
so as to instruct him?"

But we have the mind of Christ.]

L The Word of the Lord C Thanks be to God!

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia.
Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia.
Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 5:13-20

P The Holy Gospel according to....C Glory to you, O Lord!

[Jesus said:] <sup>13</sup> "You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything but is thrown out and trampled underfoot.

<sup>14</sup> "You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. <sup>15</sup> People do not light a lamp and put it under the bushel basket; rather, they put it on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. <sup>16</sup> In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

<sup>17</sup> “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. <sup>18</sup> For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. <sup>20</sup> For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.”

The Apostles' Creed

C I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day, he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Words of Institution

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Jesus said, Do this for the remembrance of me. Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Jesus said, Do this for the remembrance of me.

The Lord's Prayer

P Lord, remember us in your kingdom and teach us to pray...C Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Making Jesus Known”

Welcome to Community of Christ! We welcome YOU to worship with us at one of our TWO worship services. Join us at 8:00 a.m. or 10:00 a.m. in person or on Facebook Live. We look forward to seeing you, and as always, BRING A FRIEND!!!!

Worship Whys—Sunday Adult Forum Our weekly Sunday Adult Forum resumes this January with a new series exploring our patterns of worship as Lutheran Christians and with our own particular traditions here at Community of Christ. Have you ever wondered why we do certain things in worship, or wondered where they come from? How about the differences in traditions between different Christian denominations, or the ways our practices here are different from other Lutheran congregations in other places? And how have Christian worship patterns changed over time? All of these questions are a part of our new series, “Worship Whys,” which starts today, between the 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. services in the Bible study/Council room. Everyone is welcome, and we invite you to bring your thoughts, questions, and curiosity!

Thursday Bible Study Every Thursday at 1:00 p.m., we host a Bible study (in the Council/Bible study room) that is open to all, and so far, this year, we’ve got a great variety of things to explore in the Scriptures. Here’s the slate of topics and presenters we will study in February: Feb. 12—Vicar Natalie Presents... In a one-session class, Vicar Natalie will share some of her work that she’s been doing on her seminary thesis on the Holy Spirit in the creative process, in music. This will be her final time presenting in the Thursday Afternoon Bible Study, so you’re welcome to join us for one more last hurrah! Feb. 19 and 26 -Encountering the Book of Acts Starring in the second half of February, we’ll be doing a longer deep dive into the New Testament book of Acts to learn the story of the early church and how the band of rag-tag fishermen and tax collectors from Galilee grew into a movement that reached outward to the very heart of the Roman Empire and became a “found family” of Jewish and Gentile people, rich and poor, enslaved and free, women and men, and lived through the growing pains of that outreach to change the world. Remember, too, that we’ll continue to share video catch-up sessions on our social media each week, so that you can know what we'll be looking at each week in case you miss a week or want to join in!

Join us for Ash Wednesday Services – We will hold two services on Ash Wednesday: one at 12:00 p.m. and another at 7:00 p.m. All are welcome to begin the Lenten season with us in reflection and prayer.

Wednesday Lenten Dinners at 6:00 p.m. and Midweek Worship at 7:00 p.m. (starting on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 18) As part of the weekly rhythm of the Lenten season, we will once again host a series of simple covered dish meals each Wednesday evening in Lent, beginning with Ash Wednesday, Feb. 18 at 6:00 p.m. before our weekly midweek evening prayer service at 7:00 p.m. We would invite you to sign up at the kiosk to bring a dish to share, whether soup, salad, a simple dessert, or other elements of a meal to share supper together in fellowship before worship. This year, our Ash Wednesday meal will be hosted (set up and clean-up) by folks from the Outreach Committee, and our other remaining Lenten meals will be hosted by families from our youth and confirmation programs (for parents of youth and confirmands, this should sound familiar to you, but as a refresher, you are invited to sign up on the "hosting" sign-up at the kiosk with another family or two to help with the preparation/set-up and clean-up for one or more of those meals if you are able, and all the free-will offering from those meals will help us save money for future youth activities like the National Youth Gathering coming up in 2027!). We hope you'll be able to share a meal and break bread with other church members and friends and then join us for a brief service of prayer, song, and Scripture at 7:00 p.m. throughout Lent!

Worship Volunteer Orientation and Update - Sat, Feb 28, 10-11 am

Whether you are new to worship volunteering or have been helping out, you are cordially invited to attend the Worship Volunteer Orientation and Update Workshop on Sat, Feb 28. Pastor Steve will be describing all roles and the hows and whys of what each role does. Did you ever wonder what order we process in and why? Or if you should say "Good Morning" before offering the readings, or why we carry the light to the back of the church at the end of service? Answers to all of your questions will be provided, along with answers to any of your other burning questions about worship roles. We look forward to seeing many faces at the Workshop!

Join Us on Feb. 22 for Vicar Natalie's Farewell ❤️+

It's hard to believe that Vicar Natalie's time with us is coming soon to its end—the past year and a half has gone by so quickly! As we announced at the annual meeting at the beginning of December, we are planning a special celebration and farewell event for Vicar Natalie on her last Sunday with us, which will be Feb. 22, 2026. Here are a few things to know and mark on your calendar now: First of all, we'll have a single service that Sunday, at 9:00 a.m. We're doing that for a couple of reasons: first of all, Vicar Natalie herself has written some special music she is dedicating to the congregation to be premiered that morning. The choir is working on learning it and sharing it with us in worship, and we want the whole congregation to be together to share those moments. We will host a breakfast after the service (egg casseroles, sausage, French toast fingers, fruit, cake) when the stress and focus of conducting the choir's special music can is over, we can just celebrate Vicar Natalie's time with us and her gifts for ministry as we wish her Godspeed and share our farewell messages and good wishes with her for that last weekend in February. We have 3 sign-up sheets for this event - one for a headcount, needed by Feb 15 (adults and children), to know how much food we need, one for help on Friday, Feb 20, 9:00 a.m. to prepare some of the food, and one for help cleaning up after breakfast. We will collect a freewill offering to help offset the cost of the food. Save the date and sign up now to help us mark this important milestone!

Six women Bible Study Leaders will be helping us understand the true meaning of Wisdom as illustrated in Proverbs. The format is to read a chapter in the workbook, do any homework, and then come to Bible Study to discuss and ask questions. We will then watch the teaching on the DVD and, if there is time, discuss it! A full morning of learning! The leaders on the DVD are Jen Wilken, Ruth Chou Simons, Kelly Mintor, Adrienne Camp, Elizabeth Woodson, and Courtney Doctor. Please sign up at the kiosk, or text me, Kathryn Whitacre, with your contact information at 567-393-9444. Please purchase the workbook The Way of Wisdom, Lifeway Press.
